HIDDEN GEM WITH GREAT POTENTIAL

Built on the hills of the Umtumvuna Valley, this property has so much potential. A house and wendy-houses this property can easily become a great little property. Lots of natural vegetation, a sanctuary and hideaway. The house itself is located close to the road and offers you 1 bedroom, bathroom with bath and toilet, an open plan kitchen and lounge. From the lounge is a lovely patio area, in this area is also an entertainment lapa with a built in braai. As the property is built on the hills overlooking the valley, there is a pathway leading down into the natural flora and dotted along the pathway are 4 single wendy-houses. Following the path in between the rooms you also have small little picnic areas. With a some touches here and there, this property will offer you great valley views of the Umtumvuna. This is a real bargain. Make it a basic self-catering property, relaxation station or even back packers.
